
The latest news, views, and announcements

Introduction

This newsletter will be published each quarter, so regular customers may be informed of what's happening at Archan.

This quarter - What's New

New publications that are due for release over the coming months. See our list below

Request Your Help

Is there a particular occult subject you would like Archan to have one of its authors write? Just drop us an email with your suggestions.

The Angel Phaniel

New Publications on their way

– By Peyton Davis

In February, because of the PayPal requirements, we anticipated that the First Quarter would have limited release. This has proved not to be so. This is an update for what we released:

The Book of Phaniel
The Book of Ramiel
The Book of the iChing

The Book of the Hebrew Tarot

By -James Simpson

Tarot card designs can vary widely in style and theme, reflecting the creativity and personal touch of the artist or adept who creates them. Tarot decks may feature intricate artwork and unique interpretations of traditional symbols, such as the Rider-Waite deck, which is known for its detailed illustrations and is often referenced for its symbolism, and will be discussed later.

Independent artists often spend months or even years perfecting the illustrations, colours, and design of their Tarot decks, resulting in decks with intricate artwork and sometimes gold or silver foiling on the front and back.

Some decks, like the Cosma Visions and Children of Litha Tarot decks, are praised for their beautiful back designs, which can enhance the overall aesthetic and user experience.

Although many have tried to establish the true origin of the Tarot, we are still unsure who created the first deck. .

By tradition, the development of the cards has generally been undertaken by an occult fraternity, with the appropriate traditional inclusion of symbolic references and corresponding images. From this, we can assume that the cards do have spiritual entity links

Corporate newsletter

– By Shir Rosenstein

Due to reader requests, we are investigating the possibility of offering an ePub format for our eBook, together with the normal PDF format.

This objective has been temporarily suspended due to PayPal coding requirements.

What do you think?

–By Chanchal Sharma

The OLR are offering to supply consecrated and aligned angelic figurine.

At the moment, we are unsure if there is sufficient demand for such a service. See our website for more information .

Also, the import conditions for the possible countries that we may have to send them to may be strict import conditions.

If you would be interested in such a service, please let us know: admin@archan-publishing.com

Prayer for the Quarter – Winter.

This is a broad invocation to all angels and archangels which may be used to seek their intercession: "All ye holy Angels and Archangels, thrones and domination's, principalities and powers and virtues of heaven, cherubim and seraphim, and especially you, my dear Guardian Angel, intercede for me and obtain the special favour I now ask". This can be prayed during winter months to ask for divine protection and grace.

Astrological Possibilities

In the Northern Hemisphere the Winter Astrological period encompasses: Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces. You may use these period to mediate on the following Moon phases:

Capricorn – Governs the Knees: Let go of pent-up energy with yoga or tai chi, which combines movement with mindfulness, promoting relaxation and improving knee health. Rather take it easy? Do light leg stretches.

Aquarius – Governs the Legs: Lie back, relax, and put your feet up! This will reduce swelling in your feet and ankles and provide overall comfort for your legs. Go for a bike ride! Swim, dance, or take a moonlight stroll.

Pisces – Governs the Feet: This is an ideal time for a relaxing foot bath or a pedicure. The Full Moon in Pisces only happens once a year, so indulge! Remember: self-care is important and not selfish.